PARAGRAPH: Myself

In general I can introduce myself as Benzir Shaon or Shaon. But the most interesting thing is that, in my educational certificates I am S. M. Benzir Ahmed. I am a student from Business Administration department of East-West University, one of the renowned private universities of Bangladesh. It is my second semester and in this semester, I have taken four courses. I live in Azimpur. So, it is really a tough job to come to my study place. I have one younger sister who is studying in class VII. My mother is a service holder. I lost my father in 2001. I have many hobbies. Once upon a time, I collected stamps and coins. They are still continuing. I like art, photography and cultural activities. In my leisure time, I develop my personal web site.

PARAGRAPH: Two Things I Want To Change About Myself

Everyone has his own faults that he knows. He always tries to get rid of from those faults. I have many faults in my life, too. I want to change them; if possible now! The first one is maintaining time. It is getting harder because of my irresponsibility. Another thing is that, I want to be more pious. Because I believe, nothing is possible without Almighty. So, if I do not satisfy Him I cannot be satisfied with my daily works. So, if I can change these two things, I believe that, I do better in every sphere of life.

PARAGRAPH: My Dream Person

Like others, I dream a dream person. It is not that she needs to be too beautiful. But she has to have a good look. The most important thing is that, she will be talented and pious. I think these are two important things that make a person perfect. My dream person must have to come from a good family. In most cases, the family boldly influences a person. I want to share about everything with my dream person and also hope that good decisions and good thoughts will come from her. I also hope she will share her hopes, dreams, likes, dislikes, joys and pains. She must be smart in dress-up, thoughts and activities. My dream person will be a Bangladeshi, pure Bangladeshi girl. She will be calm and quiet like me. I hope we will be happy couple.

PARAGRAPH: The Most Craziest Thing I Want To Do

There is a wise saying that nothing is impossible for human being. I believe the saying, though primarily if anyone hears my plan he or she may think that I am nothing but a mad person. Today the stronger countries of the world are forcefully dominating the weaker countries. Here "Might is right" - rule is followed. So, what I want is that, I want to be the chief of the government of the most powerful and the strongest country. So, if I would be so, I would attack the countries who are illegally dominating other weaker countries. And at the same time, I would help the poorer countries, so that they can do better. In some recent wars, weaker countries are illegally attacked and they are facing a lot of destruction. But at the same time, nothing is happened in the stronger country. That is why I want to be the chief of the strongest country, so that I can help the poor and weak.

PARAGRAPH: Your Ideal Holiday

Now a day it is hard to pick up a day for holiday. We are all leading a life like a machine. To break this monotonous daily routine we need holiday. Last year I got a chance to spend a nice holiday. I spent the day with my two friends "Nandan Park" which is not so far from my living place. In the morning, my other two friends met me at my home. We started at about 9:30 after taking our breakfast. We went to Motijhil, got on the bus and the journey started. It took about three and a half hour. Entering the park, we were astonished. It was really a large area. Another interesting thing is that, there is a park within a park called "Water World". It is the only water park in of our country. We rode some of the rides. After that, we took some light foods and enjoyed the whole day. There was game where people can test their fate. We all returned back home at about 7:30 pm. Though at that time, we were physically tired, but mentally we were fresh.
